

WEST LoTHIAN GOLF CLUB CODE OF CONDUCT FOR YOUNG PEOPLE (Juvenile: 12 – 18yrs)

Your safety and wellbeing whilst playing golf and involved in golf related activity at, or through, West Lothian Golf Club is very important to us. We have a responsibility and a duty of care for you. As a juvenile member you have rights that we will do our very best to support and uphold, but you also have responsibilities.

As a juvenile member of West Lothian Golf Club you are expected to abide by the following code of conduct.

You should:

- Support and contribute to an environment free of fear, bullying and harassment;
- Respect differences – cultural, racial, gender, sexuality and physical;
- Treat organisers, coaches, volunteers and all golf club members with respect;
- Respect the golf course, clubhouse and your own equipment;
- Demonstrate fair play and apply these standards both on and off the course;
- Treat others as you would wish to be treated yourself; and
- Tell the Junior Convenor, volunteer(s), member of Caimin's Team and/or your parent/caregiver if you experience any problems on or around the golf course.

You should not take part in any irresponsible, abusive, inappropriate or illegal behaviour which includes:

- Consuming alcohol, illegal or performance-enhancing drugs and/or stimulants;
- Smoking;
- Using foul and abusive language; and
- Name-calling and insulting other people.

If the Code of Conduct is not observed this will result in follow-up action from the Junior Convenor. West Lothian Golf Club Council will be involved if situations remain ongoing or serious in nature and this could result in loss of membership.
